

Bette Blankenship, M.S.

ABMP BoD Secretary
(representing AAPM)

Bette Blankenship is a Medical Physicist with Sharp HealthCare in San Diego California. In addition, Bette is the Sharp HealthCare Radiation Safety Officer and Laser Safety Officer for all Sharp HealthCare hospitals and out-patient clinics.

Ms. Blankenship is certified in therapeutic radiologic physics by the American Board of Radiology. She serves as a liaison with multiple regulatory agencies and accrediting bodies as a leader in radiation protection, laser safety, and medical physics.

In addition to serving on the ABMP Board of Directors, Ms. Blankenship is actively involved with many National organizations. She is an elected member to the American Association of Physics in Medicine (AAPM) Board of Directors. She is the Chair of the AAPM Government and Regulatory Affairs committee, the Chair of the AAPM Government and Regulatory Affairs Policy sub-committee, a member of the AAPM Administrative Council, a member of the ACR-AAPM Committee to develop technical standard guideline for therapy procedures using unsealed radiopharmaceutical sources, a member of the AAPM Ethics Committee, a member of the AAPM Conference of Radiation Control Program Directors (CRCPD) Subcommittee and a liaison to the Radiation Control Program Directors.